PRIVACY NOTICE

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and your rights concerning this information. Please review it carefully.

Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. is required by law to maintain the privacy of protected health information and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to such information. Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. will abide by the terms of the notice currently in effect; however, Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. reserves the right to change the terms of this notice as well as make the new provisions effective for all protected health information maintained. If there is a change, Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. will inform you of this change at your next scheduled appointment or upon your request. In addition, a copy of the effective notice will be posted at all times in the office with a date notifying you of the most recent update.

As a patient of Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C., information about you must be used and disclosed to other parties for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations. These uses and disclosures do not require your consent and include, but are not limited to, a release of information contained in financial records, medical records, laboratory test results, medical history, treatment progress or any other related information to:

1. Your insurance company, self-funded or third-party health plan, Medicare, Medicaid, or any other person or entity that may be responsible for paying or processing for payment any portion of your bill for services;
2. Any person or entity affiliated with or representing for purposes of administration, billing, and quality and risk management;
3. Any hospital, nursing home, or other health care facility to which you may be admitted;
4. Any assisted living or personal care facility of which you are a resident;
5. Any physician providing you care;
6. Any business associate of Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. that agrees to abide by the privacy requirements regarding your protected health information; and
7. Licensing and accrediting bodies, including the information contained in the OASIS Data Set to the State agency acting as a representative of the Medicare/Medicaid program.

In addition, Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. may contact you:

1. To provide appointment reminders or information about other health activities we provide.

Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. is also permitted to use or disclose information about you without consent or authorization in the following circumstances;

1. Where the use or disclosure is required by another law, but only to the extent that it is required and complies with such other law;
2. For certain public health activities;
3. Where Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. reasonably believes you are a victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence, but only to a government authority authorized to receive abuse, neglect or domestic violence;
4. Health care oversight activities;
5. Certain judicial and administrative proceedings;
6. Certain law enforcement purposes;
7. To coroners, medical examiners and funeral directors, in certain circumstances;
8. For cadaveric organ, eye or tissue donation purposes;
9. For certain research purposes;

10. To avert a serious threat to health and safety;
11. For specialized government functions, including military and veterans' activities, national security and intelligence activities, protective services for the President and others, medical suitability determinations, correctional institution and custodial situations; and
12. For workers' compensation purposes.

Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. is permitted to use or disclose information about you without consent or authorization provided you are informed in advance and given the opportunity to agree to or prohibit or restrict the disclosure in the following circumstances:

1. For use in a directory of individuals served by Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. (such information is limited to the individual's name, location within the facility, condition in general terms, and religious affiliation);
2. To a family member, other close relative, close personal friend, or other identified person, the information relevant to such person's involvement in your care or payment for care.
3. To a public or private entity authorized by law or charter to assist in disaster relief efforts, but only for the purpose of coordinating with such entities.

Other uses and disclosures not specifically addressed earlier in this notice will be made only with your written authorization. In addition, New York law requires an authorization to disclose highly sensitive information, including communicable diseases such as Human Immune Deficiency Virus (HIV) and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), drug/alcohol abuse, psychiatric diagnosis and treatment records, and genetic testing information.

Examples of when authorization is required for Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. to use or disclose your protected health information include:

1. Psychotherapy notes (notwithstanding the provisions that allow the use and disclosure of protected health information without consent and authorization for treatment, payment and healthcare operations, the law specifically requires an authorization to use or disclose psychotherapy notes); and
2. Marketing, except if the communication is in the form of a face-to-face communication made by Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. to you or a promotional gift of nominal value provided by Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C.;

These authorizations may be revoked, in writing, at any time, except in limited situations.

YOUR RIGHTS

The Health Insurance Portability Accountability Act gives you certain rights with regard to your protected health information. Any of these rights may be exercised by contacting Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C., and in some situations, may require you to fill out a written request. You have the right, subject to certain conditions, to:

1. Request restrictions on the use and disclosure of information about you for treatment, payment and healthcare operations, and to friends and family involved in the individual's care. However, the Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P. C. is not required to agree to the requested restriction;
2. Receive confidential communication of protected health information;
3. Inspect and copy protected health information;
4. Amend protected health information;
5. Receive an accounting of disclosures of protected health information; and
6. Obtain a paper copy of this notice, even if you agreed to receive this notice electronically.

In addition, New York state law may provide you with greater protection than the Health Insurance Portability Accountability Act. In situations where this is the case, Rockland Ear, Nose & Throat Associates, P.C. will be in compliance with the applicable New York law.

This Notice is effective beginning June 29, 2016.
